TUCSON MAN SENTENCED FOR CAUSING STRUCTURE FIRE

TUCSON, Ariz. – The United States Attorney's Office for the District of Arizona, announced that on May 17, 2004, Damian Allen Radmanovich, DOB 7/8/74, of Tucson, Ariz., was sentenced to 42 months in prison, to be followed by 36 months supervised release, by United States District Judge Raner C. Collins in Tucson, Ariz.

Radmanovich had entered a plea of guilty to damage and destruction of a building by means of fire, in violation of 18 United States Code §844(i) on September 4, 2003. On May 1, 1999, a Tucson structure, formerly known as the Solarium, at 6444 E. Tanque Verde, Tucson, Ariz. and its contents were destroyed by the fire. The building was being renovated as a restaurant.

In addition to the prison sentence and supervised release, Radmanovich was ordered to participate in substance abuse treatment and to have no gang affiliation. As a condition of the plea, the defendant agreed to make restitution. The restitution hearing has been set by the court for June 18, 2004.
